"Who is your depot agent?" asked a visitor the other day. "L. Johnson; why?" was the semi-quizzical reply. "He is the most courteous railroad man I have met in many a day. When I paid him for a ticket he thanked me most courteously. This is unusual." Most people who have business with Mr. Johnson entertain pleasant recollections of him.

Take the Press with you and if you find any goods or prices not as advertised Mr. Obyrian will make you a present of the article misrepresented. The prices are from the goods and are guaranteed to be as advertised.

Lots of Light.

The Electric Light Company now has 750 incandescent lights in town, and its force is kept pretty busy putting in additional ones. The Illinois Central has contracted for lights at the depot and contracts will probably be made with all the churches. It is probable that by the end of the year there will be from 1200 to 1500 lights. This is a much better showing than was expected, but the low rate and superb service is winning.

BIGHAM MINES WILL BE OPERATED.

A company has been organized for the purpose of reopening the Bigham spar mines, located in the suburbs of Marion. This shaft was sunk by the Chicago Mining Company to the depth of eighty-seven feet, and a quantity of fine spar taken out. On account of trouble among the stockholders work was suspended and a suit annulled the lease. The new company is backed by Hearsh Bros. of Caseyville. Machinery will be purchased at once; the shaft will be sunk twenty-five feet deeper on the vein and a drift run out. Mr. J. R. Finley will have charge of the work.

A Happy Affair.

Mrs. R. C. Walker, assisted by Miss Ruby James, charmingly entertained a number of her many friends at her new home on last Friday afternoon, at the first Pan-American party of the season.

The house was attractively decorated with the flags of the American countries. In keeping with the nature of this party a Pan-American contest was fought and won, Miss Alice Browning won the first prize and Mrs. P. H. Woods the second.

A handsome luncheon was served, beautiful in its appointments, and palatable enough for the most fastidious, and served in Mrs. Walker's unique and artistic manner.

The table was a thing of beauty and covers were laid for Mesdames Cochran, Finley, Gray, Woods, Nunn, Pickens, Clark, Jenkins, Haynes; Misses Alice Browning, Lizzie James.
